Master's Academy Honors American Heritage with Inspiring Liberty Day Celebration

VERO BEACH, FL - Master's Academy recently commemorated Liberty Day with a schoolwide event honoring America's heritage and the sacrifices of its veterans. Head of School Dr. Rick Brewer delivered a keynote address urging students to reflect on the foundational values of the nation. The program featured student performances of patriotic music, dramatic readings from the Declaration of Independence and Gettysburg Address, and a solemn tribute to veterans, including two honored World War II servicemen. The event served as a powerful celebration of freedom and national unity.
