Master's Academy 4th Grade Summer Reading List

Even though school is out for the summer, it's always great to keep reading! Here are a few books that I think you will really enjoy, and some of them will even give you a sneak-peak into what we will study together next year! I want to encourage you to select several of the books below to read this summer. Please complete the form at the bottom (with a minimum of 4 books) and bring it with you on the first day of school for a special reward!
