

Summer Reading List

Grade 1

Master's Academy

- We strongly suggest the Reading for Fun Summer Library by A Beka. (www.abeka.com)
- We also recommend that you take your child to one of our public libraries to pick out books...immersing your child in the love of books is so important. Many libraries hold summer activities as well.
- Reading to your child and having your child read to you is crucial to their success. Make sure to use the phonograms to sound out new words.
- Read God's Word together!
- Choose books at your emerging reader's level; here are some you could choose from:

Dr. Seuss books:

Go, Dog, Go

The Foot Book

Hop on Pop

Green Eggs and Ham
